A rare opportunity to acquire a well-established, fully operational printing business located in Southeast Calgary. It is located in a plaza with great footfall due to anchor tenants like Starbucks & Safeway. This versatile business offers a wide range of services, including graphic design, printing, signs and banners, large-format printing, promotional products, garment printing and embroidery, finishing services, copying and scanning, rubber stamps and nameplates, commissioner for oaths services, and shipping. The business also benefits from a strong online presence. Monthly rent includes operating costs. Please note: All inquiries are by appointment only. Assets worth more than $85,000 included in the purchase price. Do not approach staff or visit the business without prior scheduling. Contact us today to learn more.
